Proud to be working with

'Working in Partnership, achieving the highest outcomes for all'

HUB NEWS No.7 December 2021

DECEMBER NEWS

L.E.A.D. Teaching School Hub has a leading role in signposting and delivering teacher development support to all 365 Lincolnshire schools wishing to access the services on offer.

Designated by the Department for Education (DfE) in January 2021, L.E.A.D. Teaching School Hub has a core function to support schools and trusts to grow, recruit, develop and retain the very best teachers, support staff and leaders.

With no subscription fees required to access these services, the Teaching School Hub aims to ensure that all support is tailored to meet the needs of your individual setting.

READING AND WRITING SPECIALISTS

To achieve this aim, the Teaching School Hub is seeking to develop a team of sector led specialists in reading and writing across the county who themselves will receive; high quality CPD, the latest DfE messages, resources and research. Following this, the intention will be for this team to support and develop the teaching of reading and writing in other schools or academies, whilst remaining school based.

We look forward to hearing from those specialists across the county who would benefit professionally from being part of this exciting opportunity. These specialists would work to compliment the existing DfE English Hub specialists.

THE HUB QUALITY ASSURANCE TEAM

The L.E.A.D. Teaching School Hub is committed to the highest quality professional development. As shared in a range of forums across Lincolnshire, as well as on the website, the Teaching School Hub has recently been seeking to appoint specialists to form a quality assurance team. This team will sit alongside the Hub to measure, challenge and support the quality of professional development in association with the Hub's provision. This includes the CPD which is associated with the Early Career Framework and National Professional Qualifications.

LEADING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

As referred to in the previous newsletter, the EEF has shared the latest guidance document in relation to professional development. This document is aimed at supporting the development of current practice within your setting and is applicable to all phases and school types. Click this LINK to access your copy.

Leading Professional Development for Others is an interesting podcast which reflects upon many similar aspects and could be useful when designing your school, academy or MAT approach to CPD. CLICK HERE to view

At KYRA Research School, we bridge the gap between research and classroom practice, partner with schools to improve outcomes for disadvantaged pupils through evidence-informed implementation, robust evaluation, quality CPD and follow-on support.

NEW OPPORTUNITY FROM KYRA RESEARCH SCHOOL

Supporting recovery- making evidence informed choices

The EEF's Research Schools Network will deliver newly developed twilight sessions specifically designed to provide support in shaping schools' approach to educational recovery, school improvement and planning for the next academic year.

Through two free 90-minute sessions you will be supported to purposefully identify your school's key development priorities in the wake of the pandemic. Guidance around using research to identify potential approaches to educational recovery will also be provided, alongside worked examples of how to put new initiatives into practice.

Cost: Free

Audience: Suitable for schools or teachers who haven't been on Research School training recently and want to find out more about using evidence to support recovery.

Each pair of the twilights will be delivered by a team from KYRA RS & LearnAT Associate RS, or Huntington RS and their Associate RSs.

Twilight 1: Exploring the challenges Twilight 2: Preparing & planning for recovery

Building a Writer in the Early Years

For ENGLISH LEADERS/ EARLY YEARS TEACHERS & LEADERS

Early Years forms the building blocks for life long learning. Establishing a positive ethos and approach to writing from the beginning can influence the mindset and enjoyment as pupils progress beyond this phase. This programme, which is led by an early years specialist, is therefore intended to identify strategies for 'building a writer,' impacting positively upon vocabulary, pedagogy, enjoyment and outcomes in this aspect of the curriculum.
